JOHN P. CRONAN, United States District Judge:

Mr. Aryeetey is scheduled to be sentenced by the Court on February 19, 2025. On November 12, 2024, defense counsel filed a letter indicating his “belie[f] that the Court can find [Mr. Aryeetey] culpable on Specification No. 7 in light of the jury’s verdict [in United States v. Aryeetey, No. 23 Cr. 561 (JPC)], and further find, as undisputed at trial, that [Mr. Aryeetey] failed to report to Probation for a period of weeks after the incident described in Specification No. 7, in line with Specification No. 5.” Dkt. 3558. The letter also signaled the Government’s agreement. Id. By February 17, 2025, each party shall submit a letter to the Court (a) addressing whether evidence was presented at trial that Mr. Aryeetey failed to report to Probation for a period of weeks following the incident described in Specification No. 7 and, if so, identifying the location of that evidence in the trial record, and (b) addressing whether Mr. Aryeetey should be allocuted on Specification No. 5 at sentencing.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 10, 2025
